

Answer: Ultrasound Probe???

Did You Know?

Farmers and veterinarians take care of their animals while they are pregnant using some of the same equipment used for people.

Answer: Shower Head

Did You Know?

Many farmers shower BEFORE they go into the barn to make sure no germs come in that could make their animals sick.

Answer: Ear Tag

Did You Know?

Instead of names, animals are given ear tags (like ear piercings) so the farmer can tell them apart.

Answer: Computer Mouse ??

Did You Know?

In Ontario, 74% of farmers use computers to keep business records and surf the Internet for information about weather, technology, and farming.

Answer: Corn

Did You Know?

The corn grown in Ontario produces enough oxygen each year for everyone living in Ontario.

Answer: Neoprene Gloves?

Did You Know?

Before farmers can buy or use sprays in their fields, they must take a safety course about how to protect your health and theirs.

Answer: Spray Nozzle

Did You Know?

Farmers test their soil and only apply the fertilizer or spray needed for each crop.

Answer: Model Plough

Did You Know?

Where possible, many farmers are working their fields less often to save fuel and keep the soil healthy.

Answer: Pig Water Drinker ??

Did You Know?

Drinking systems are specially made for each kind of animal so they can drink water 24 hours a day.

Answer: Slatted Flooring?

Did You Know?

Animal manure and urine falls through the openings in the floor to keep animals clean and dry.

Answer: Wrench

Did You Know?

Farmers are very handy both in the barn and in the field. On any given day they could be a plumber, electrician, welder, or mechanic.